Launched in the wake of the nuclear crisis in the Ukraine, the project seeks to highlight the growing global impact of technological risk on global security, economic viability and sustainability. The choice of the title comes from the Greek word "tekhno-ekriseos", which translates as "technology induced crisis". The word "tekhnotekriseos" has been used by researchers in recent years to identify a range of hazards to our way of life caused by technological risks. Techno-ekriseos was first coined by Gill Martin-Cadet, a former United Nations senior official who argued that government leaders have failed to apply the lessons of the Titanic to the global society of 2010, because they

Delhi, 1967, by Shri Ramkrishna Gopal Ji.6 great hotels in New York City for $50 or less NEW YORK (CNNMoney) -- New York City has some of the best hotels in the country, and I know because I've stayed in them. Of course, a great deal more than a nice hotel is required to make your stay fun and memorable: good food, friendly service and a fun space to gather are a must. When it comes to prices, the city has a lot of options. Advertisement But I always feel conflicted: a great deal on a hotel can be great, but we often get caught up in the latest big deal on a hotel. To be totally honest, I actually feel guilty when I find a great deal on a hotel -- even when it's a room for myself. That's why I've come up with a list of six hotels for $50 or less, and I think you're going to love each of them. Plus they're all within walking distance to the subway. We've also made them easy to navigate so you can quickly and easily search them. The Courthouse Hotel ($57) If the budget is really tight, I highly recommend the Courthouse Hotel, which is located on the second floor of the New York courthouse. Its deep, deep discounts can make you feel like you've just won an expensive contest. During my stay I paid $50 a night and even the cheapest rooms include pretty nice extras like free Wi-Fi and a microwave. The hotel is modern and the rooms are spacious. It's in a great location too. The Hudson River is just a block away, and you'll find many different shopping and dining options within a few blocks. The Courthouse Hotel is on a dead end street just off of Washington Square Park, and lots of people walk by and stop to take pictures. The Art Deco Grand Lisabetta ($97) The Lisabetta Hotel is one of my favorites, and I strongly recommend it. The Art Deco inspired hotel is located right on a bustling stretch of South Houston street, and it has a fabulous restaurant on site. They can usually
